Through the Incyte Charitable Giving Foundation, Incyte has committed to providing a maximum of $100,000 each year to CSCDE over the next 5 years, beginning in 2018.

"We are very pleased to announce the creation of the Incyte Cancer Care Assistance Fund for Delaware with Cancer Support Community Delaware, an organization which, like Incyte, is dedicated to supporting patients with cancer and the local community," said Paula Swain, Executive Vice President of Human Resources and Chair of The Incyte Charitable Giving Foundation. "Today, as we celebrate the opening of our newly expanded headquarters in Wilmington, we reaffirm our commitment to Delaware and to the well-being of the communities we serve."

The fund will be administered by Cancer Support Community Delaware. Additional details about the Incyte Cancer Care Assistance Fund for Delaware will be made available in January 2018.

"Through the establishment of this fund, we aim to address the emergent needs that patients with cancer in Delaware face as they navigate their disease and its impact across all aspects of their lives," said Nicole Topkis Pickles, Executive Director of Cancer Support Community Delaware.

About Cancer Support Community Delaware

The mission of Cancer Support Community Delaware is to ensure that all people impacted by cancer are empowered by knowledge, strengthened by action and sustained by community. Through participation in professionally led support groups, educational workshops and mind/body classes, people affected by cancer learn vital skills that enable them to regain control, reduce isolation and restore hope regardless of the stage of disease. At Cancer Support Community Delaware, all programs are at no cost to cancer patients, caregivers and family members.
